

You start at Band 7 \longrightarrow You stop at Band 9

When you join us, you are a Very Good User, having fully operational command of the language with only occasional unsystematic inaccuracies and inappropriacies. While misunderstandings may occur in unfamiliar situations, you handle complex detailed argumentation well.

By the end of the course, you would find yourself an Expert User of English with fully operational command of the language; which means you would communicate appropriately, accurately and fluently with complete understanding.
